Re: United States v. Lincoln Acosta
19 CR 281 (LGS)

LORNA G. SCHOFIELD
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Dear Judge Schofield:

By this letter motion I respectfully seek an adjournment of Mr. Acosta's sentencing from its present date, Nov. 12, 2020, for a period of 60 days. Assistant United States Attorney Alexandra Rothman does not object to the application.

I have not been able to meet with Mr. Acosta since mid-February 2020. MCC visitation was suspended then, and remained under suspension into September, by which time Mr. Acosta had been moved to the Westchester County Jail. I am attempting to arrange an in-person legal visit with him, as my understanding is that video conferences with inmates at that facility are not confidential. But as of today, I have not been to have a private conversation with my client. I have not reviewed the final Presentence Report with him; neither have I been able to complete his sentencing submission.

Accordingly the defense is not prepared to proceed to sentencing on the current schedule, and respectfully seeks a further adjournment to a date convenient to the Court approximately 60 days hence. I apologize to the Court for any inconvenience caused by filing this letter motion belatedly.

Sincerely,

David Wikstrom
